2. The credits on account of the subscriptions to the Postal Life Insurance Fund of the Government servants who on or before 1-11-1956 are working in these places are to be accounted for henceforth by this office itself and consequently the names of such subscribers should appear in the certified lists prepared by this office for the month of November 1956 and onwards for onward transmission to the Director, Postal Life Insurance, Calcutta.

3. The Director, Postal Life Insurance, Calcutta, desires to have detailed information in respect of Government servants who will be working in the abovementioned places from 1st November 1956, to enable him to revise the certified lists of subscribers to the fund and to prepare them correctly and in a manner which will make it up-to-date. To facilitate him to arrange for the preparation of the advance lists correctly for transmission to this office, it is requested that full particulars relating to all the Postal Life Insurance policy holders since transferred to your jurisdiction and whose subscriptions are to be henceforth accounted for by this office with effect from 1st November 1956 may kindly be furnished direct to the Director, Postal Life Insurance, Calcutta, under intimation to this office in the form set out in the annexure to this letter.

4. The matter may kindly be treated as very urgent.

5. The receipt of this letter may kindly be acknowledged.

Yours faithfully,
M. A. SIDDIQUI,
Deputy Accountant General (W).

Annexure.

1. Name and present address with names of States from which transferred.
2. Number of each policy held.
3. Rate of premium in respect of each policy.
4. Name of the department with designation or particulars of the post held.
5. Designations of the (i) previous and (ii) present audit officers with their headquarters.
6. Full designation of the officer who used to draw the pay bill (before transfer) with name of States.
7. Full designation with name of station of the officer drawing the pay bill now (in respect of non-gazetted officers).
8. The name of the treasury from which pay used to be drawn before transfer (with names of States if not shown anywhere else).
9. Name of the treasury from which pay is or will be drawn now (with name of the State if not shown anywhere else).

N.B.—Similar information on items 2, 3, 4, 7 and 9 may also be furnished separately, in respect of such of the subscribers who were under your jurisdiction even prior to 1st November 1956.
